FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

19. Plaintiff RUBEN ALBERTO AVILES RODRIGUEZ was employed by K AND G FLOOR SERVICE CORP., as a construction worker, sheetrock worker and drywall worker while performing related miscellaneous duties for the Defendants, from in or around June 2021 until in or around February 2022.
20. Plaintiff RUBEN ALBERTO AVILES RODRIGUEZ regularly worked approximately seven (7) days per week from in or around June 2021 until in or around February 2022.

21. Plaintiff regularly worked a schedule of shifts beginning at approximately 9:00 a.m. each workday and regularly ended at approximately 7:00 p.m., or later, seven (7) days per week from in or around June 2021 until in or around February 2022.
22. Thus, Plaintiff was regularly required to work approximately seventy (70) hours or more hours from in or around June 2021 until in or around February 2022.
23. Plaintiff RUBEN ALBERTO AVILES RODRIGUEZ was paid by Defendants a flat daily rate of approximately $250.00 per day for all hours worked from in or around June 2021 until in or around February 2022.
24. Although Plaintiff regularly worked approximately seventy (70) hours or more hours each week from in or around June 2021 until in or around February 2022, the Defendants did not pay Plaintiff at a wage rate of time and a half (1.5) for his hours regularly worked over forty (40) in a work week, a blatant violation of the overtime provisions contained in the FLSA and NYLL.
25. Further, Plaintiff was not compensated at all for his last two (2) weeks of employment by the Defendants.

27. Upon information and belief, Defendants willfully failed to keep payroll records as required by both NYLL and the FLSA.
28. Additionally, Defendants willfully failed to provide Plaintiff with a written notice, in English, of his applicable regular rate of pay, regular pay day, and all such information as required by NYLL §195(1).
29. Upon information and belief, Defendants willfully failed to provide Plaintiff with any wage statements, upon each payment of his wages, as required by NYLL §195(3).
30. As a result of these violations of Federal and New York State labor laws, Plaintiff seeks compensatory damages and liquidated damages in an amount exceeding $100,000.00. Plaintiff also seeks statutory interest, attorneys' fees, costs, and all other legal and equitable remedies this Court deems appropriate.

COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

31. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of themselves, and other employees similarly situated as authorized under the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 216(b). The employees similarly situated are hereafter, the “Collective Class.”
32. Collective Class: All persons who are or have been employed by the Defendants as construction workers, sheetrock workers, drywall workers or any other similarly titled personnel with substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, who were performing the same sort of functions for Defendants, other than the executive and management positions, who have been subject to Defendants’ common practices, policies, programs, procedures, protocols and plans including willfully failing and refusing to pay required overtime wages.
33. Upon information and belief, Defendants employed approximately 10 to 20 employees or more during the relevant statutory period who Defendants subject(ed) to similar unlawful payment structures that violated applicable law.
34. Defendants suffered and permitted Plaintiff - and the Collective Class - to regularly work more than forty hours per week without appropriate overtime compensation.
35. Defendants’ unlawful conduct herein has been widespread, repeated, and consistent.
36. Defendants had knowledge that the Plaintiff and the Collective Class regularly performed work requiring overtime pay.

Those similarly situated employees are known to Defendants and are readily identifiable through Defendants’ records.
